INTRODUCING . . . SROINES (our mascot)

The Spirit of the School

The 1947 OAKS

SCHOOL SPIRIT

School spirit! How much those words mean to all of us . . . especially to us who are graduating with the Class of '47. Those two words are symbols for an idea, the Muskegon Heights High school idea . . . the spirit that carries us through.

It isn't a spirit confined to the cheering section alone. It is an idea that pervades all of our endeavors. It is the soul, the life of our school. We feel it in the strains of martial music of the band, vibrating in the memory. We sense it in the methods and manners of our instructors. We hear it in the sweet, strong voices of the a cappella choir. It is with us always in the warmth and loyalty of our friends and classmates.

So we leave you now to thumb through the pages of the 1947 Oaks in company with our little Tiger mascot, "Sroines". He will help you to understand just what we mean.

DEDICATION

We of the 1947 Graduating Class dedicate this volume of The Oaks to Mr. Roy A. Peterman, head of the commercial department for the last 26 years and one of the most loyal and hard-working subscription advisors The Oaks staff could ever hope to have.

Mr. Peterman came to our school when the doors opened for the first time in the fall of 1921. He has been associated with the annual ever since. He was instrumental in publishing the first Oaks, in June, 1922. He has always had his heart in our Oaks which, he says, "is the only written evidence of the best years of our lives."

Born in Greenville, May 14, 1891, he was graduated from Crystal High school in 1909, attended Alma college, and received a diploma from Ferris institute in 1912. He holds both a Bachelor of Arts and a Bachelor of Science degree. His teaching experience includes one year of college teaching in Oklahoma State, and 33 years of high school teaching, 26 years of which have been spent here at Muskegon Heights High school.

Added to his fine contribution in teaching commercial subjects, Mr. Peterman has been one of our most active faculty members. In past years his Commercial club was the school's largest and most active club. During the War Years he was faculty chairman of the War Bond drive. He has sold football tickets for 25 years, never having seen a Tiger game on Phillips field until the fall of 1946 when he sat in the stands for the first time.

That is why we dedicate this annual to Mr. Peterman and say, "Good-by, Mr. Peterman, and thanks for all you have done. Best of luck!"

IN MEMORIAM

MR. GAYLE A. CHURCHILL

(Excerpts from the eulogy delivered by Mr. E. W. Gillaspy at the memorial service held in the high school.)

"Music, when soft voices die, vibrates in the memory."

. . . Certain words loom up as most typical of Mr. Churchill's life, and one of these is "faith" . . . he had faith in himself, faith in you students . . . O, how many times was this faith shown! Only the greatest of all music became the basic songs of the choir . . . music of faith, music of God. He had faith in his band. Even when ill, he remarked, "They'll work harder and do better than if I were there!"

. . . yet he was also a man of ambition . . . and he had the ever-so-important quality of winning friends. Lastly, he was an artist, a man of great talent in music.

We are saddened today by God's will that he shall raise the baton no more in our high school; yet here, today, Gayle Churchill hands to you the baton of faith, ambition, friendship, and, above all, a sense of good music. Be yours to hold it high!

SUPERINTENDENT

MR. W. R. BOOKER

Mr. W. R. Booker is one of the key-men who have made so many of our objectives possible. Few of us realize what a tremendous task it is to be superintendent of schools. Trying to move ahead with the times, yet trying to do what is best for everyone . . . that is a task virtually impossible, yet one which men like Mr. Booker must attempt. In doing so, he has won the sincere appreciation and respect of the students, faculty, and townspeople.

Mr. C. F. Bolt

An Active Leader is just one of the many epithets of which Mr. C. F. Bolt, our friend and principal, is most deserving. Guiding the students along the pathway of knowledge, showing them right from wrong, being a good leader and a friend . . . these are just a few of the services Mr. Bolt renders to us and to the community.

Being active comes easy for Mr. Bolt. He likes to see progress in our every activity. From football to dramatics, he is there with a helping hand and encouragement. He brings us through with flying colors.

Mrs. Anna Harvath

Mrs. Harvath, a graduate of this high school, has long ago proved her efficiency in the main office, both as secretary to our principal, Mr. Bolt, and as office clerk. She has made thousands of friends among the students and on the faculty. "Indispensable" probably best describes her.

MISS DORACE LACORE

A gracious smile,
A winning way,
Made her beloved
Day after day.
With friendly words
And willing heart,
With skill and zest,
She played her part.
Her kindly deeds
And purpose true,
Won all our hearts.
(We hope she knew!)

Looking Back Over The Trail

As we, the Graduating Class of 1947, look back over the three years spent at Muskegon Heights High School, we remember the many good times we've had and lifelong friendships begun.

In our sophomore year we began with a mixer. We had a good time at three dances we sponsored. We nearly won the Victory Bond contest, but at the last minute the seniors took the lead and we came in second. We got acquainted with the mid-year sophs at a reception we arranged for them. Neil Frick and Marva Fredricks were our presidents, each serving one semester—good ones they were too!

In our junior year we won the Victory Bond contest. "Cash and Carrie," our junior play was a great success. We sponsored two other dances during the year. Headed by Jim Norris, we did ourselves up fine in sponsoring the "Senior Serenade".

Our senior year was the best of all. At last we reached that venerable position. We were surely proud when our team won the championship. Our senior play, "Come Over To Our House", was a hit in spite of the big snow storm. We dedicated our annual to Mr. R. A. Peterman who has worked diligently for the success of our Oaks since 1921. The weeks flew by, and then that important week arrived: Baccalaureate came first; then our Class Breakfast. We surely had the underclassmen roaring on Class Day. Finally came that all important night, Graduation . . .

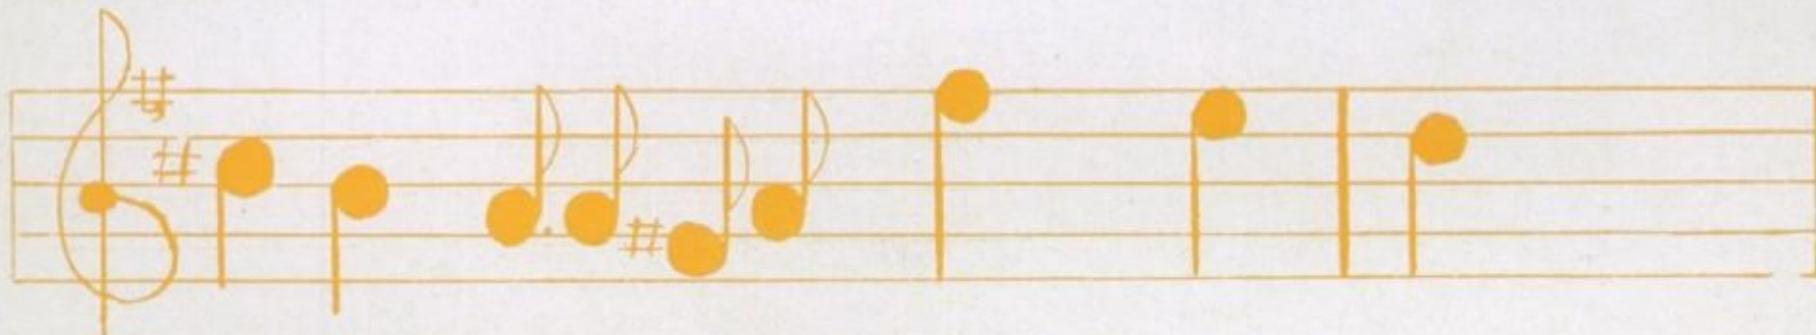

Our knees fairly shook as we marched up for our diplomas. Now we are out on the broad highway. So long! Be seeing you!

BEST CITIZEN

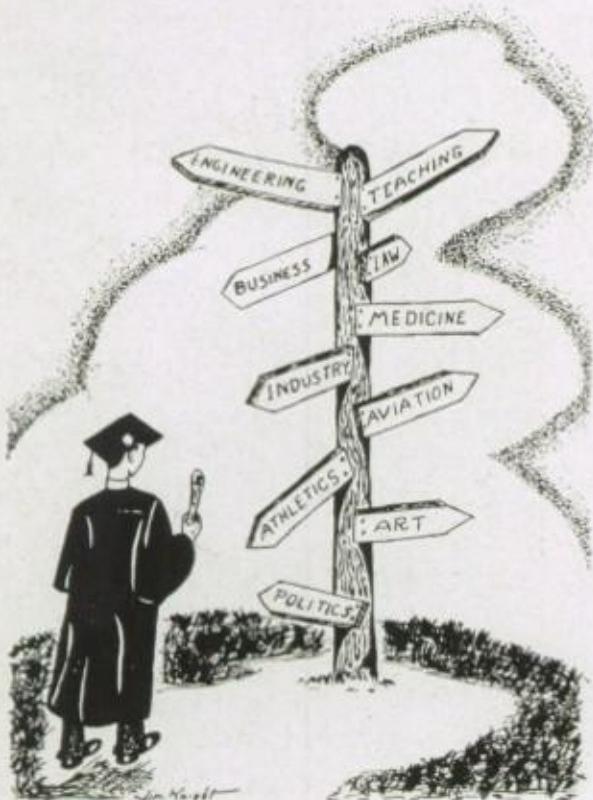

Joyce Colburn

Delores Bleich, valedictorian, achieved the highest rating in scholarship among all students of the senior class of 1947. Margaret Forrest, salutatorian, was second. Joyce Colburn was chosen "Best Citizen" by a vote of the senior girls, an honor award sponsored by the D.A.R.

Delores Bleich also won the D.A.R. Award in American History. It was a written examination taken under guidance of Mr. James Verduin, proctor. Any senior was eligible. Six students participated.

LOOKING FORWARD OVER THE HIGHWAY

Hmmm, well for heaven's sake! Look what's lying on this park bench. Golly, a copy of the Muskegon Heights Record. Look, June 13, 1957! That's the day I graduated ten years ago. I wonder what the kids I graduated with are doing now.

Whoof, it feels good to sit down, that pavement is hot on my bare feet. The tops of the shoes are all right, but I sure miss my soles.

My goodness — look at the headlines — Norris succeeds Frick, who, as Drain Commissioner, allowed things to get pretty messy.

Look, just below that. My old girl friend, Lois Gathard, plunged to her death from her third floor room of the American Hotel, owned by Albert Gebolys. She was identified by Sheriff Sovacool. Arrangements for the funeral are being made by the Louise Lee Funeral Home. Her will is being prosecuted by Lawyer Ruth Parmenter in Judge Bob Scholtens' probate court. She leaves all her worldly goods, a toothbrush and two pairs of bobby-sox, to her life-long friend, Bev. Bohland, the famous mud-pack artist. At the inquest, John Workman, noted dentist, identified her by her upper plate. Those attending the funeral were: Mr. and Mrs. Earl Beam (Mrs. Beam is the former Jean Miles); Mr. and Mrs. Paul Anderegg (Mrs. Anderegg is the former Barb Koteles now teaching English at Muskegon Heights High School); Mr. and Mrs. Kayle DePoy and their three lovely children (Mrs. DePoy is the former Jeanne Turner); Miss Jeanne Booker, the famous star of stage and radio now starring in "Bloomer Girl". Pall-bearers were Richard Beckman, Richard Carson, Richard Klimo, and Richard Hubbell. As she was lowered gently into her vault, a strange voice was heard to say, "Open the door, Richard."

LOOKING FORWARD

Look at this article: Jerry Heaton was arrested for selling worm-filled apples on the corner of Peck and Broadway. The arresting officers were Bob Blackmer and Warren Appell. He has now confessed that Delores Bleich was his silent partner. They will be sent to the Muskegon County jail which is being run by Stanley Elliott. ("Oh, I'm so tired. It seems that just about everybody I know is in the news except me.") Look at this story by Glenna Lake, star reporter. There was a fire at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Dietz. Mrs. Dietz is the former Marian Smith, who is working as a secretary at Campbell, Wyant, and "Pehr". $5,000 damage was reported by Fire Chief Cliff Goericke. ("Boy, am I hungry! Look at that beautiful advertisement of this cake at Burmeister's Bakery. I remember she used to go steady with Johnny Glomb. Guess she married him.")

It seems that the Bechtel and Sell Pharmacy has picked the winners of the beauty contest—first prize went to Aileen Smith of Marne, Mich. The prize is a round trip to Fruitport, all expenses paid. Joyce Colburn, Mayor of the city, will present her with the key to the city. Second prize went to Charlotte Porter, whose prize was a one way trip to Lake Michigan on the People's Transport Corp. bus, which is owned by Johnny Jurkas. We notice the bus will be driven by Betty Judd. Third prize winner was Lenore Diepen and her prize was a large economy box of Kleenex.

Here is the weather report by head weather man Kenneth Besaw. "Rain today followed by tomorrow." ("I hope it does rain. Haven't had a shower for a long time.")

Look, Helen Myer's pool hall, "The Academy for the Promotion of Billiard Players", was just raided! Among those who were taken to the "Hoosegow" were Ed Aamodt, Gene Bergklin, Rolla Bailey, Pat Bilka, Doug Beth, Gloria Cox, Beth Dickinson, Gwen Dixon, Lois Dodds, Betty Doenges, and Frieda Doll.

A wedding reception was held at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Frank Harrison, nee Gladys Scheel, for Mr. and Mrs. Mike Bollenbach. Mrs. Bollenbach is the former Bev. Koch. The marriage was performed in the St. Paul's Church with the Reverend Kathryn Valencourt officiating. Maid of Honor was Dianne Hislop and bridesmaids included Marian Hinchman, Marian Hudson, Terry Javinski, Barb Mattson, June Maycroft, and Marcella McGonigle. Bob Graff was best man and the ushers were Roy McCrea, Bob Moulton, John Neuhau, Ken Graves, Bernard Cook, and John Eberly. Out-of-town guests included: Alan Kushner, the famous New York cartoonist; Jean Kuerth, Chicago hat designer; Dean Kessler, head of Radio Technician School of Detroit; Gene Brusky, owner of Bethlehem Steel; and Donna Dyer, head of Johns Hopkins.

Oh, I see where Jim Howell is going to attend a football banquet at Ann Arbor. At the station to bid him good-by was Tenny Lee Williams. Edward Lenoir also attended his departure, which was preceded by a gala farewell party.

Here's a story by June Bluhm, who seems to be society editor now. I guess I'll see what she has to say. Quite a few celebrities attended the opening of the famous "William Rose's Diamond Horse Collar". Among those attending were the famous tumblers, Duane Buchany and Gladys Buit; and the famous quartet Bowen, Brown, Bullis, and Bush. The All-American Girl's Basketball Team was the guest of the Proprietors, Marianne Takats and Bill Wansten. Members of the basketball team are: Capt. Arlene Schamber, Gloria Jean Scales, Shirley Sekeres, Margaret Cato, Mary Ellen Dobb, Betty Durand, Henrietta Vanderstelt. Zuidema's Zoot Suit Zombies were kicking out music with a beat so the dancers could kick their feet. Crooning the more sentimental tunes was the famous groaner, Bob Ribesky. A few of the more famous personages were: Charles Reinertsen, the imminent poet; Bev Skok, the author; Beverly Jean Smith, the fashion designer; Theresa Ostradick, the college prof.; Larry Radke, the dentist; Ruth Woodruff, the artist; Bev Vargo, Powers model; Janice Schwass, famous Hollywood fashion designer; Connie Taylor, one of the Georgia governors; Doris Wood, famous surgeon; Joyce Thoma, the Shakespearian actress; Tom Culver, the well-known oralist.

In the show were co-stars Joan McConnell and Ray McLean, of stage, radio, and screen fame; and Esther Spoonas, tap dancing star. Janet Laughlin, Shirley Lund, Kathryn Magdic, Yvonne Jensen, Nancy Premo, Jean Guthrie, Betty Nuttall, Elinor Le Roux, Jean Eklund, Betty Stratton, Marva Parker, Delores Privasky, Marilyn Swift and Maxine Smith were in the chorus-line. Janice Emmons, Leola Ferris, Pat Gardner, Lois Parker, and Beverly Ruiter were charming cigaret girls. Hat-check girls were Dorothy Gleisner, Ruth Strand, Margaret Forrest, Joanne Kohlbeck, Lila Goodrich and Pat Hatfield. Edsel Erickson was Master of Ceremonies.

Seems as if M. H. is certainly getting fashionable lately. ("Oh, well, I have evening clothes too. I wear them evenings, and mornings, and afternoons too, often for weeks at a time.")

Look, here is the birth column. Boys were born to Mr. and Mrs. Walt Lysiak, nee Glenna Looyengoed; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith, nee Marilyn Start; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Linnell, nee Barb Lawson; Mr. and Mrs. Stan Rinehart, nee Alice St. Charles; Mr. and Mrs. Stan Whitlow, nee Shirley Tinkham. Girls were born to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Winteringham, nee Beverly Wood; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Olsen, nee Doris Milner; Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Langlois, nee Betty Lee; Mr. and Mrs. John Dudzik, nee Marian Sangster. Looks like M. H. will have a good football team in the future.

LOOKING FORWARD

Some of the kids I graduated from high school with are now graduating from the U. O. M. H. (University of Muskegon Heights). Here are John Rams, Ralph Shephard, Kathryn Scholtens, Jim Stamper, Lyle Stratton, Mike Carpenter, Delores Hagen, Bob Badner, Pat Humphreys, Phyllis Jenkins, and Don Hotelling.

It seems as if they're starting a new newspaper, "Nelson's Nosy News". The owner is Ted Nelson, of course. On the staff are Jim Knight, Bob Cato, Bob Ray, Doug Ruud, Jack Collinge, Margaret Saunders, Loyal Cobb, Nancy Scheel, Jim Duvall, Chet Skiles, Bob Deimel, Helen Hiza, Bill Turrell, Bob Hepburn, Jim Collier, Clark Coon, John Harnyak, Marlowe Erickson, Ray Frens, Bill Carlareau, and John Gill.

At last, the sports section! U. of M. H. defeats Army, 12-6. The star pass of the day was thrown by Francis Ruud, and received by Bob Gould, David Skiles, and LaVerne Ter Haar. All made 85 yd. runs, in several directions. Charles Votaw, Bob Gust, Bill Wood, Ron Zoratti, Ed Mezynski, Ed Macheta, and Walt Manguem showed good line playing. Coaches, Tom Muriset, James McKay and Bob Martin looked well pleased with the game. Army star Everett Grandelius failed to kick the extra point.

Those who lead the crowd in jeers were Millie Vanderlaan, Norma Vander Velde, Glenna Whelpley, Delores Goulet, Lea Wilson, and Gloria Wood.

I guess that's about all. Oh, I must have missed this feature article. What strange profession these Heights women get into! Marian Jones is going to be a deep-sea diver; Betty Keller, a flag-pole sitter; Phyllis Leigh, a Heights Streamliner brakeman; Baby-Face Mohring, a lady wrestler; Shirley Musk, a female "private Dick"; Gladys Nelson, a window washer at the Empire St. Building in Muskegon Heights; and Donna Zachariason, the conductor of the Muskegon Heights Philharmonic, Symphonic, Moronic orchestra.

Well, that finishes the paper. Looks like everyone has made something of themselves except me. Oh, oh, here comes a cop. I gotta go.

By Lois Gathard, Beverly Bohland, Helen Myers, Jim (The Tramp) Langius.

VALEDICTORIAN'S ADDRESS

by Delores Bleich

For us, this is the time of happiness, joy, and optimism. We are hopeful and are looking toward the future. But for many graduates of the past 15 years, the occasion was not such a joyful one as this. First, there was the depression, when there was no place in the world for youthful workers. Then war, when many graduates could not be present to receive their diplomas. Farewells were said on a note of sadness, for some were final.

But today there is a place in the business world for young people; and there is no war to take their lives. In some respects the outlook is much brighter than it was for the graduates before us. The world needs us to live for our country, not to die for it. Even though there is no war, no depression, we still are passing through a momentous time in history. The problems of the world were never greater. These problems will have to be solved soon, and that means that those of us who are just reaching adulthood, will have a share in the solution. Upon our shoulders rests the responsibility of regenerating American patriotism and selling democracy to the world. We must offer a living example of successful democracy. We cannot rest upon the laurels of the past and hope that our reputation will carry us through. We must prove democracy the best government for humankind. Our democracy must of course begin at home, but it must not end at home. Our dealing with foreign countries must be fair, honest, and helpful. We should help make the United Nations a working example of human cooperation.

Before we can handle international obligations on this basis, we must first look critically at our own land and see what is wrong. We must cleanse it, as Christ cleansed the temple, to make it a fit place upon which the dove of democracy may settle. We must purify American standards and morals. We must stand up and fight the forces which are trying to obliterate the American way of life. Only true belief in and enthusiasm for our way of life can stamp out subversive forces. Let the voice of truly famous Americans lead us. Let our hearts stir and swell with pride as the spirit of Patrick Henry comes from the past to once again rouse Americans to action. Let the calm common sense of Thomas Jefferson guide us, as it did him as he wrote "The Declaration of Independence." Let us love our fellow men as Abraham Lincoln did, so we may strive to do our best for all. May the hope and visionary mind of Woodrow Wilson guide us when the times seem dark. Let the courage of Franklin D. Roosevelt be a shining example when we face great odds. May the Greatest Power of the universe, Jesus Christ, be our living example as we strive to make the world a better place for all.

SALUTATORIAN'S ADDRESS

by Margaret Forrest

"School Spirit": that is the theme of our senior class yearbook, The Oaks, for 1947. It is something most of us have heard about, but perhaps not all of us have tried to grasp its fullest meaning. What is this "school spirit" we hear so much about? Because it is in truth a spirit, it is difficult to explain. It is an intangible something hard to define; yet we all know it is something which binds us together in every enterprise, binds us in loyalty to our school, loyalty to our friends. We Seniors of the Class of '47 believe now we have discovered what this spirit of the school really is. We can feel it in our hearts, yet find it difficult to make it clear to others except by example.

A few years ago, for instance, graduation seemed a long way off. The time has passed all too quickly, and now commencement is virtually here. We have made many tried and true friends among both students and teachers here; and we are undoubtedly better persons because of them. We shall cherish these friendships all our lives.

During these years of working and playing together, we have developed a sense of loyalty to our school. If we have not always shared our burden of responsibility, it may have been our own fault. Many have sincerely shared their responsibility, and have given of their talents for the benefit of the entire student body. We have shown each other the way to live. In a word, loyalty is the key-note of school spirit; without sincerity, enthusiasm is a mere sham, only "a tinkling cymbal."

Now we have come to the place where our loyalties must be broadened, our circle of responsibility will be widened and deepened. If we can carry out our obligations in this larger life which is almost upon us, in the same manner and with the same spirit which has characterized our endeavors in high school days, then surely we can make ourselves valuable members of this community—or any community. A man or a woman is measured in terms of his contribution to the progress of civilization, not merely in terms of money or show.

This is the reason why, in this age of atomic power, commercialism, and machinery, that we must not forget our highest loyalty, a devotion which transcends everything, devotion to God and His program for the universal brotherhood of man. Narrowness, jealousy, and selfishness lead only to conflict between friends, neighbors, and nations. We have high hope, therefore, that the same spirit which we have known here in Muskegon Heights High school, will serve as an example and an inspiration for us all in the great scheme of life just ahead.

What a A Peterman commercial grand staircase we have history of our school and actually see the Heights Tigers in full swing at their home field. The reason for this is that Mr. Peterman has been selling football tickets at the Heights games for the past twenty-five football seasons, "coped up" in a booth.

Once in a great while he would see a play at the teams were at the right end of the field or sometimes he could see the last few minutes of the game. The only games which he has seen were out of town games which he and his wife attended.

Mr. Peterman very seldom attends any athletic events without Mrs. Peterman for they both are Tiger fans through and through. It was also a big treat for him to see the Heights girls performing on the field. We often saw Mr. Peterman in the grand stand.

Then circumstances took the Courtrights to the city of Morelia, where they lived with a Presbyterian missionary for a while. From Morelia they went to Toluca, where they stayed at the home of the Garcia's, parents of Elsa, a girl the Courtrights had met on their trip to Mexico four years before. The home of the Garcia's was large and built in the form of a square, which allowed very little privacy.

It all happened this way. Mr. Verhun saw an absence slip made for a certain "Shirley Temple" thinking it interesting. He showed it to Mr. Murray, our advisor, who in turn, checked up on the facts.

"Shirley" turned out to be Wanda. But, of course, who knows? Maybe someday Wanda will be in Hollywood.

Christmas is different than in other place. In Hollywood, posts are decked with Christmas trees and lights. They look like palm trees, but you can have believe it when you see them coming. Los Angeles is all over. The who have a beautiful fairy land. It is lovely to look at.

But on Christmas day it's all changed! Looking out of the window you see not snow but palm trees, green grass, and roses. The Christmas trees in people's houses look pretty, but somehow not right.

Last fall our band, under the capable direction of the late Gayle A. Churchill, was very active, playing for all the home football games and participating in other school and civic affairs. All the band members as well as the rest of the school felt the loss of Mr. Churchill, who passed away shortly after the Christmas holidays, very keenly. We are sure, however, those who return next fall will be as loyal to Mr. Maynard Buck as they were to Mr. Churchill.

3rd row—Bassarab, B. Smith, Richards, Chvala, Hudson, Bluhm.

2nd row—Falbe, Hobby, Doll, Baker, B. Johnson.

1st row—D. Johnson, Carlson, Kessler, Tamburo, VanderVelde.

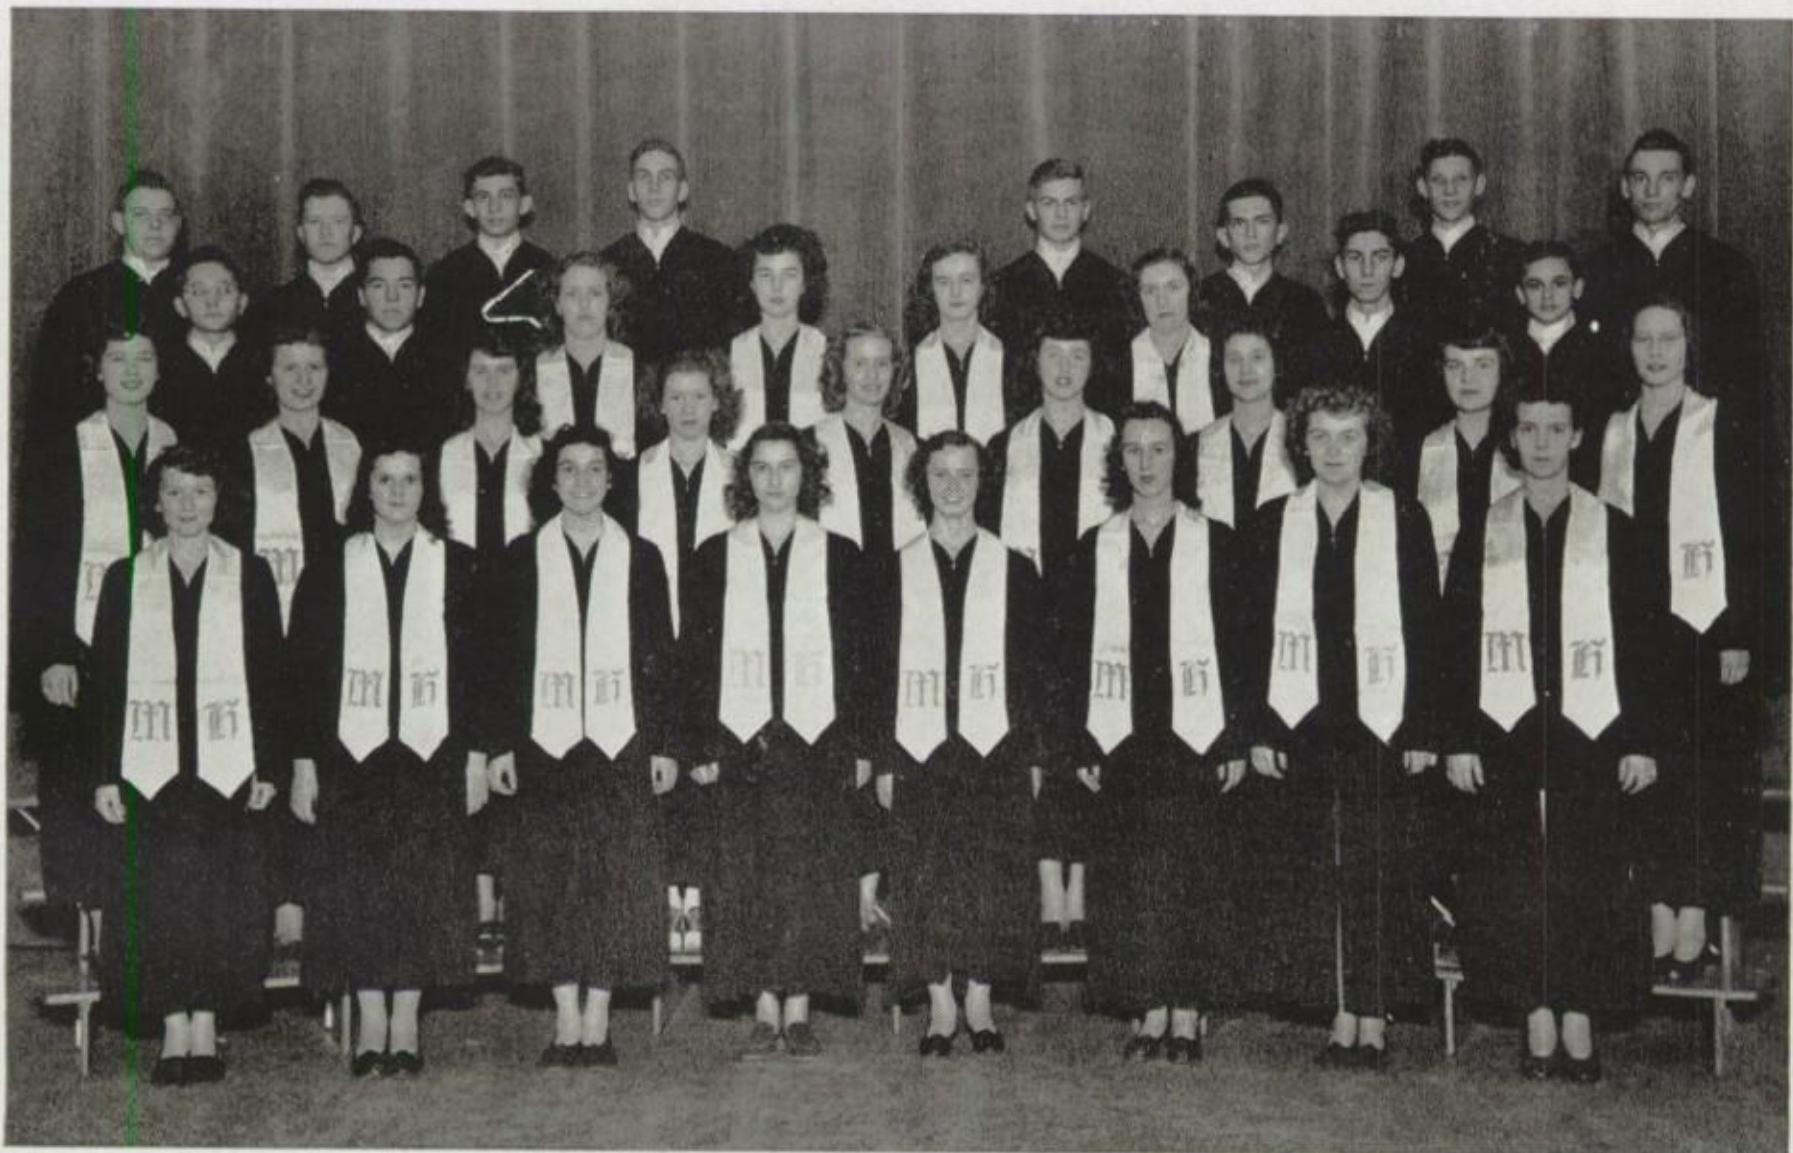

Absent were—Cole, Sekeres, Cartwright, Hansen.

The Glee Club, comprised of all girls, has always been a profitable and popular organization in our school. It carries school credit and usually meets every other day during the week in the high school auditorium at 10 o'clock. Mr. Maynard Buck is the director.

Any girl who likes to sing will certainly enjoy the Glee Club. It is the best place to learn the "tricks of the trade", and provides a background for those wishing to participate in the work of the A Cappella Choir. Each girl receives valuable individual instruction, and learns to sing her individual part for which her voice is best suited. The girls also learn to harmonize, and have special daily singing drills. They sing the literary classical music such as "Nightfall", "Pale Moon", "The Robin in the Rains", and others. Much of it produces a wealth of personal pleasure and satisfaction which the girls would not exchange for anything in the world, even though they get school credit for their work.

A CAPPELLA CHOIR

Third Row—Slobodin, Schmidt, Wilson, Goulet, Parmenter, Lee, Hunter, Swager.
Second Row—Anderson, Sekeres, Porter, Chandler, Start, Javinsky, Booker, Kienke, Buit.
First Row—Zachariason, Reed, Minnerick, Kropf, Begley, Hislop, Kruitoff, Sell.

Our A Cappella Choir is an organization of which the whole school is justly proud. It was developed by the late Mr. Gayle Churchill, director, and has about 46 members, most of whom are senior and sophomores. Members are chosen by audition and voice classification, and not simply by enrollment.

The past year was one of the most active and interesting, and yet one of the saddest, owing to the unexpected demise of Mr. Churchill. The Choir sang for school assemblies, for the Woman's club, and for church organizations, luncheon clubs, at the annual Christmas assembly, the Norge Convention, for Grossman's store, and over the air through the WKBZ microphones.

Socially, the Choir members have lots of fun. A sleigh ride and a dance were two of the events of the year, as well as a trip to Lansing for the state music festival. Officers of the choir were: President, Bob Ribesky; secretary, Charlotte Porter; and treasurer, Dianne Hislop.

The choir is now under the direction of Mr. Maynard Buck who has had wide experience in teaching high school and college music.

ORCHESTRA

Handy, Proctor, Thom, Klimo, Mr. Buck, Strand, Schmidt, Scales.

Owing to the untimely passing of Mr. Gayle A. Churchill, our music director, the orchestra was not able to reach its usual peak of fine performance.

During the last few years, it was considered wisest, under our particular music program, to limit the orchestra to what is known as a "string ensemble." Furthermore, wind instruments were needed for a larger marching band. So, while the band was increasing, the orchestra was decreasing. A third reason for so few members in the orchestra probably is owing to the fact that few grade school children are taking instrumental music lessons as in past years.

In other words, the music department in high school is a tremendously large job for one director. Mr. Maynard Buck, who succeeded Mr. Churchill, has been planning for the future. He would like to see our school represented by a fine orchestra as well as an excellent band and choir. Even if it requires five years, the job should be done if our musical education department is to rank with others in the state. Let us all cooperate with Mr. Buck and the Board of Education to the fullest extent. We want and need good music.

DEBATE TEAM

We are proud of the work of our debate team this year and we have good reason to be. The affirmative debaters were: Dorothy Gleisener and David Wampler, the only members who had previous debating experience. The negative was composed of Douglas Cutler and Dean Kessler. Because of having won five of eight contests with various schools of the state, they acquired the Detroit Free Press Award for outstanding debating. They also succeeded in entering the regional eliminations at Kalamazoo in which they were matched to debate against Hudsonville, and Icst. Incidentally the Hudsonville Debate Team was defeated in the State Championship debate team in 1946.

Thanks to the excellent coaching of Miss Julia Royse and Mr. E. W. Gillaspay, the team did remarkably well. The question debated this year was: "Resolved, that the Federal government should provide a system of complete medical care available to all citizens at public expense."

On April 18 in Muskegon Heights High auditorium, local contestants won three firsts and two seconds in the District contest.

Jeanne Booker took a first place in dramatic declamation, Betty Downey captured a first in oratorical declamation, David Wampler took a first in extempore.

Each year our school holds a series of forensic contests. The purpose of these contests is to stimulate interest in speech and to develop students with special talents in that field.

In our speech contests this year a large number of students participated. Competition was keen. First place in the Original Oratory Contest was taken by Charles Votaw. His oration was entitled "Basis for a Real Peace." Dorothy Gleisner took second place, and Delores Bleich, third.

Extemporaneous Winners were: First, Douglas Cutler, and second, David Wampler. Their topics were "How to Get Along with Russia" and "Portal to Portal Pay," respectively.

Betty Downey was the first place winner in Oratorical Declamation. Second place went to Jayda Garland, and third, to Shirley Hauke.

Jeanne Booker captured first place in Dramatic Declamation. Shelley Baldwin won second place, and Barbara Platte, third.

The directors of speech activities are Miss Julia Royse and Mr. E. W. Gillaspay.

STYLE SHOW

The students here as typical clothing students, have had four semesters of clothing under direction of Miss Mina Morris. They have learned the importance of good judgment in the selection of textiles and determining their needs.

Girls are taught that clothing which simply hangs, and is not worn, is a sign of failure as well as a waste of money. Choosing suitable styles and materials for individuals requires careful study of the principles of art, harmony, balance, proportion, rhythm, and emphasis.

"Wise spending is more important than the most diligent saving."

CAFETERIA

Working in the cafeteria for the first semester were only six girls, each having their own duties to perform with a helper, Mrs. Lawrence, who came in every day at 10 o'clock. The 11 o'clock Foods IV class prepare the food every day for the cafeteria. There are approximately 150 students every day to serve. They serve a hot dish, sandwiches, salad, dessert and milk; each day something different for variety.

The second semester there were two Foods IV classes. One met at 9 o'clock and the other at 11. Each class helped prepare for the lunch. Three girls in the 11 o'clock class serve at noon.

Miss Ruth Madison is the foods instructor.

The Student Council is proud to leave behind it a record that will long be remembered. They work diligently for the good of the entire student body and faculty, scheduling busses for out of town games, sponsoring dances, and establishing a greater measure of student control in school affairs. Representatives were sent to a state-wide council meeting in Lansing, where it was learned that our school is among the leaders in student government.

Miss Donna Bolt and Mr. James Verduin, who have sat in on every council meeting for the last three years as advisors, deserve a great deal of credit for the efficient manner in which our council operates.

Y-TEENS

The Y-Teen organization is a part of the YWCA. Y-Teens this year served at several banquets, ushered at symphonies, and did many other things to help the community. They

COSCARELLI M. H. MEMORIAL

"We have come to dedicate a portion of that field as a final resting-place for those who here gave their lives that that nation might live."

—Abraham Lincoln

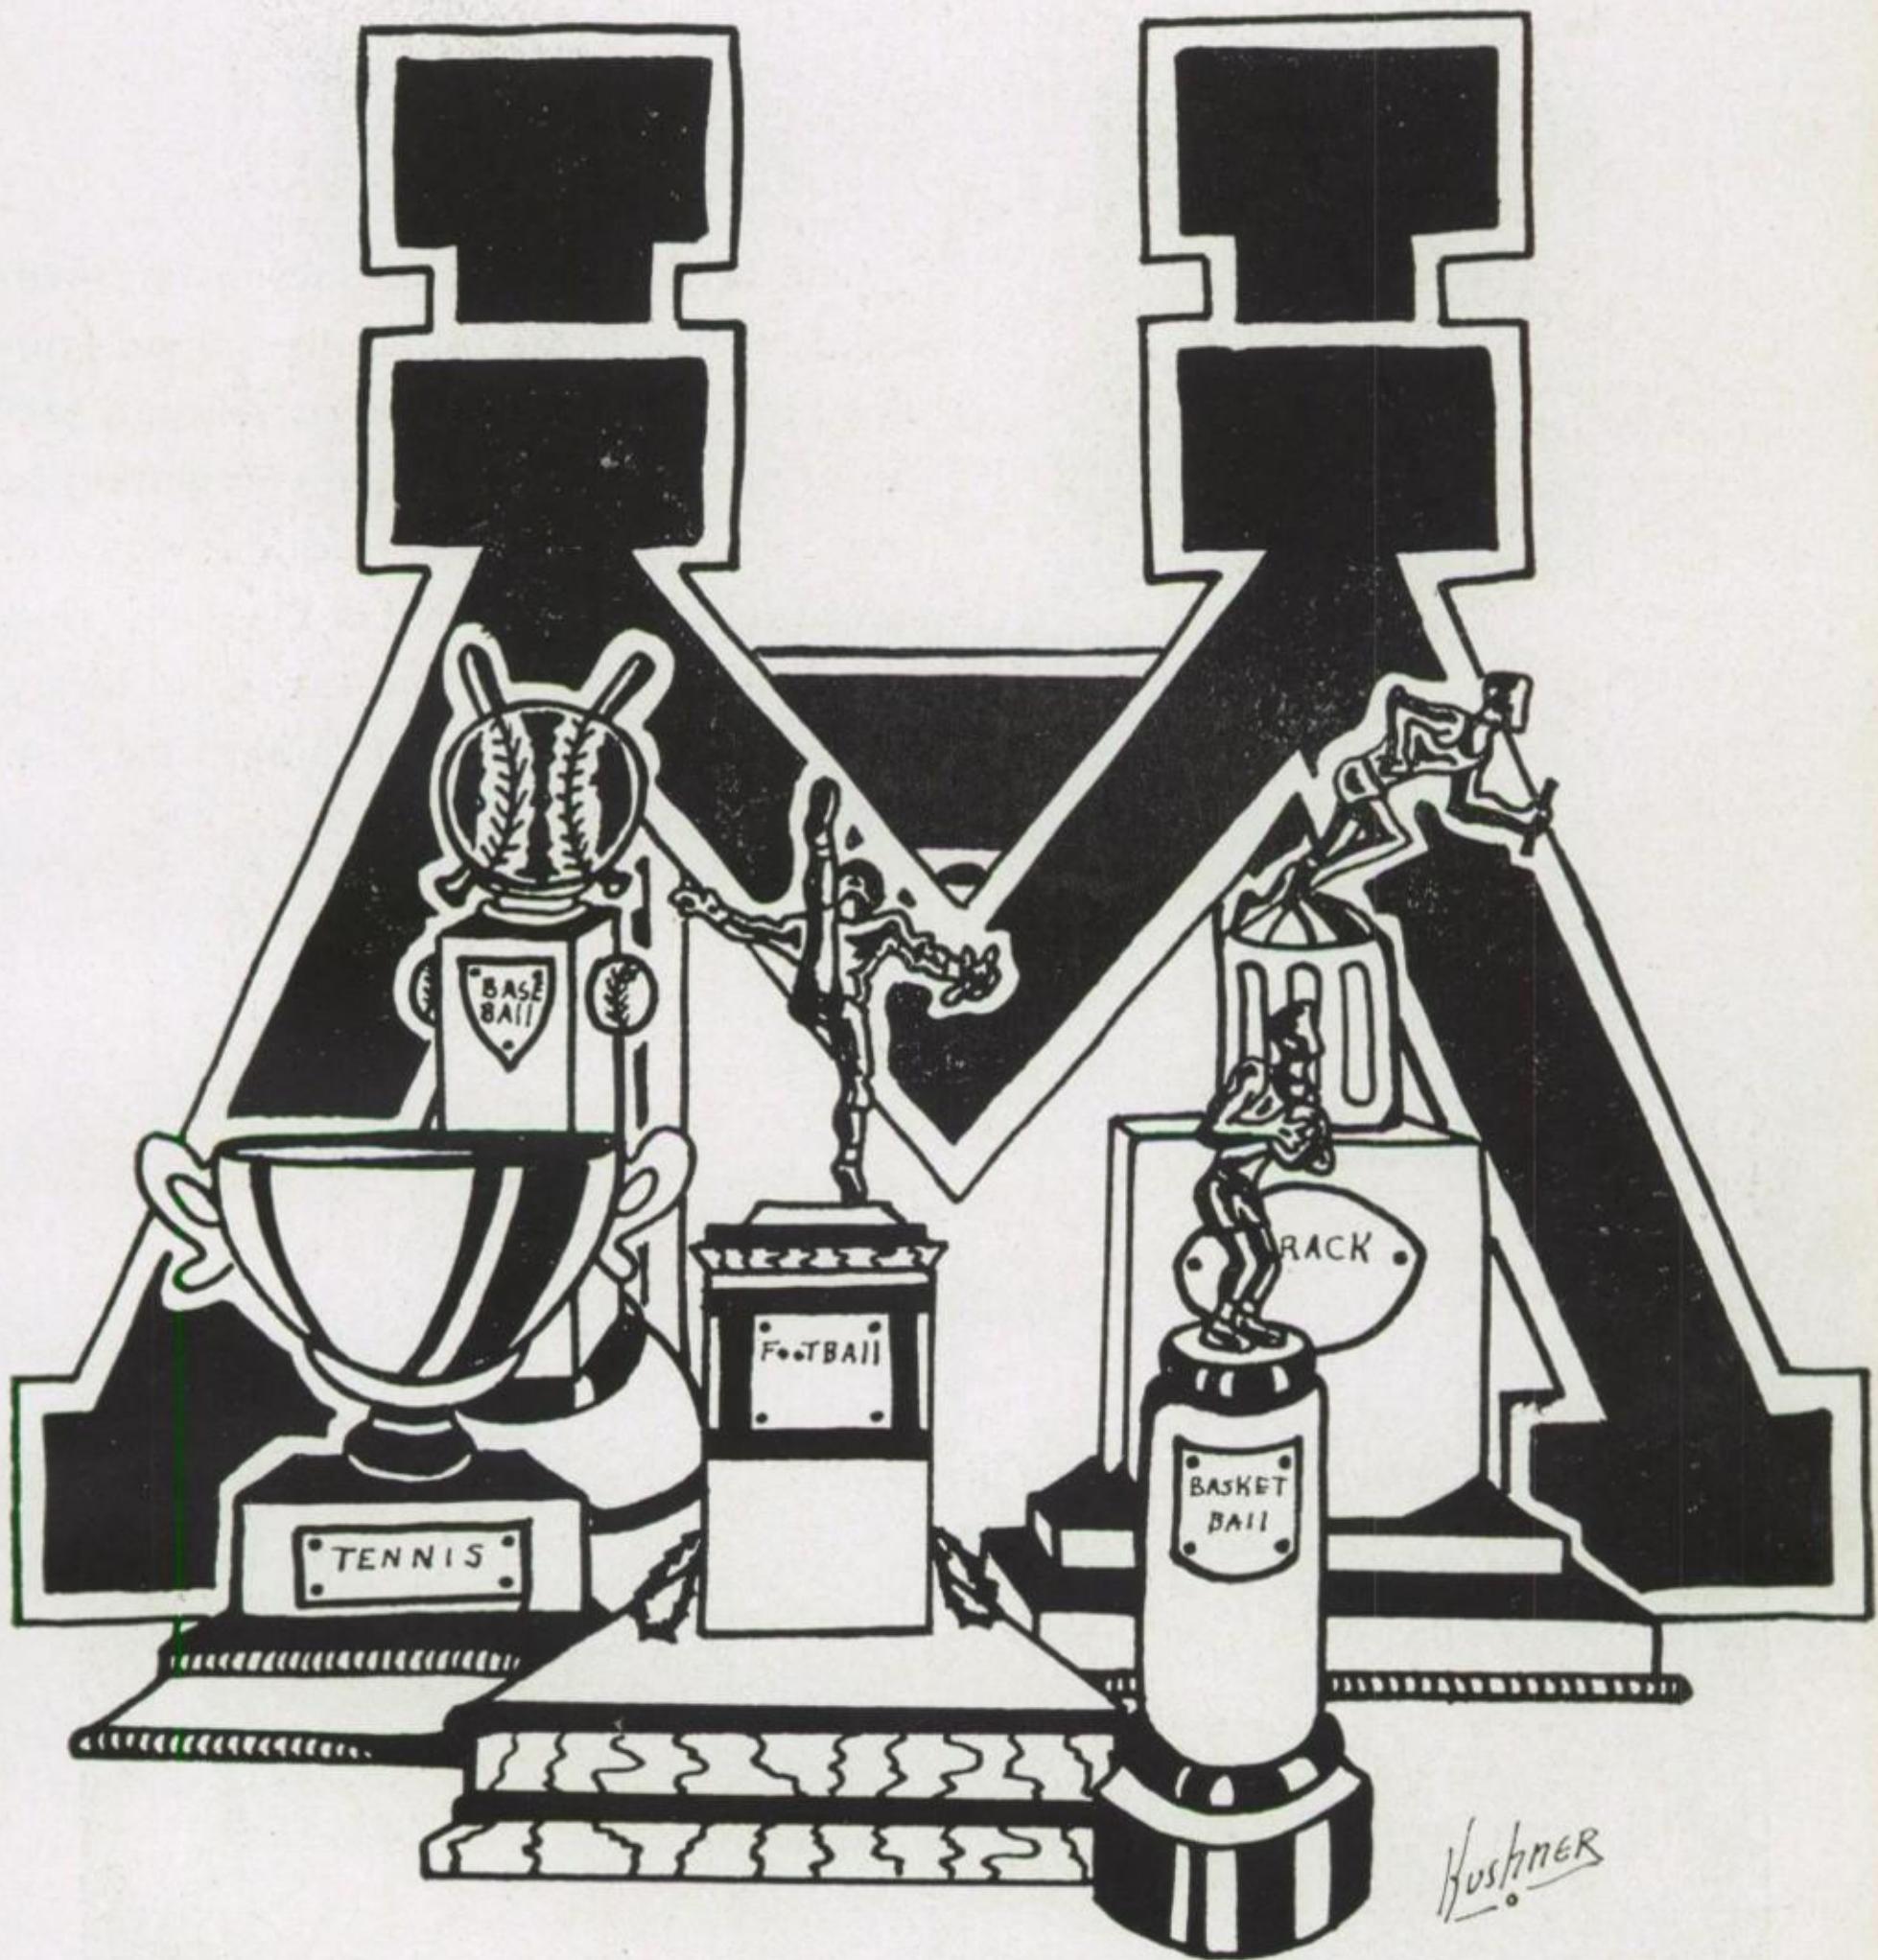

On a cool, crisp October evening preceding the Muskegon Heights-Grand Rapids Union football game, Mr. James Coscarelli, of this city, presented the high school Athletic Association with a beautiful stone memorial and bronze tablet commemorating the ten MH letter-winners who sacrificed their lives for their country during World War II. It was a fitting gift, gratefully accepted by the school from a loyal fan and friend of youth.

Plans for the memorial grew and took shape during the summer of 1946, when Mr. Coscarelli first discussed the idea with C. F. Bolt, principal. The stone, a huge boulder obtained from Casnovia, was artistically created into a memorial by Mr. Merritt Corbus and now rests in the southwest corner of Phillips field.

"I knew all of these boys and all were of good moral character, of excellent scholastic standing and athletic ability," Mr. Coscarelli told us by way of comment. "It was an honor to have been associated with them, and to have the memorial accepted by the school."

A close-up of the bronze tablet makes all of the names clearly legible in the photograph above.

VARSITY FOOTBALL

VARSITY FOOTBALL

One of the many outstanding improvements added to the brilliantly lighted Phillips Field was the electric scoreboard pictured at the left. Other factors leading to the betterment of the gridiron was the construction of a new set of bleachers and a retaining wall on the east side. Many additional structures of this kind may be added in the future.

STATE CHAMPIONS

G. R. CRESTON—Fullback Grandelius galloped over for all three touchdowns and a 19 to 6 triumph. About 6,500 saw the game. (19—6)

CATHOLIC—Hard blocking and tackling was featured as the Orange and Black defeated highly touted G. R. Catholic, 13 to 0, on Bigelow field. (13—0)

HOLLAND—The Tigers won over the Woodenshoes 32 to 19, Holland scoring on two long runs in the waning moments of the game. (32—19)

UNION—Heights edged the Red Hawks, coached by former Tiger Milo Sukup, 13 to 7, in a wild, rugged contest with thrills galore. (13—7)

KALAMAZOO—One of the best Kazoo elevens of recent years fell before the Tiger powerhouse 20 to 12. The outcome was in doubt until the final whistle. (20—12)

GRAND HAVEN—In a rather poorly played, ragged contest, the Tigers' victim this time was the Blue and Gold, to the tune of 19 to 6. (19—6)

BENTON HARBOR—The Tigers defeated B. H. 19 to 12 after a 12—12 deadlock at the half. It was a "knockem-down, drag 'em out" affair, vicious on the forward walls. Harbor's passing was almost fatal. (19—12)

BATTLE CREEK—After losing Anderegg with a fractured leg, the Tigers exploded with new power, trampling the Cereal-city lads 19 to 6. It was a clean, hard game. (19—6)

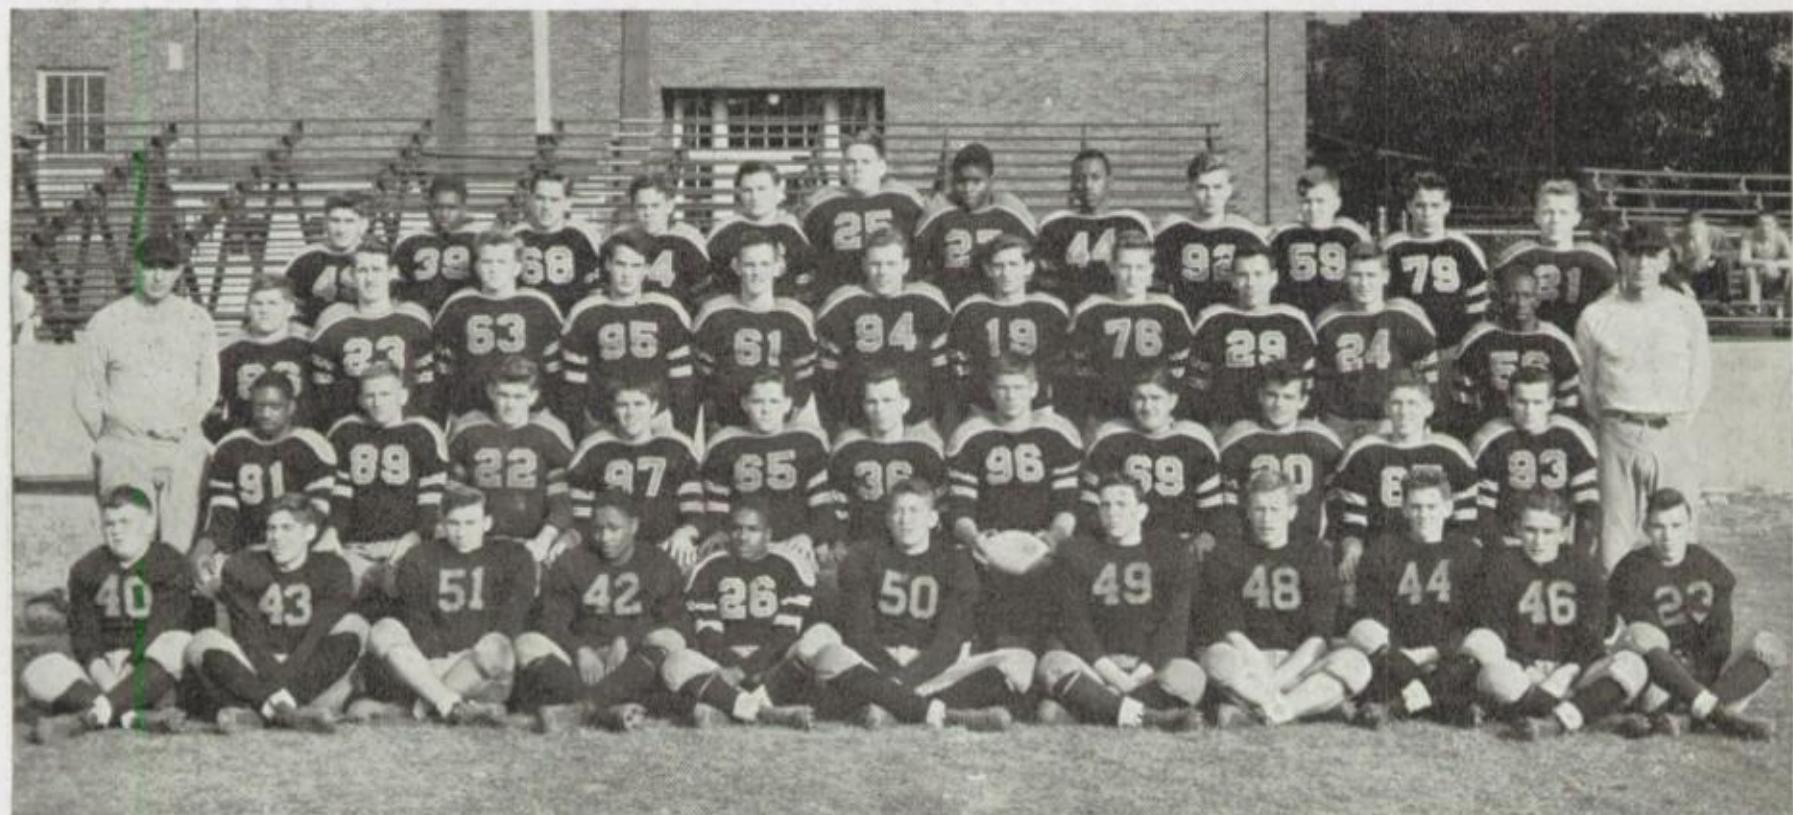

MUSKEGON—In a sea of mud at Hackley Stadium, the Tigers defeated Muskegon, arch-rivals from across the tracks, 7 to 0. A pass, Grandelius to Howell set up the touchdown, the former smashing over for the tally. The triumph made it 18 consecutive wins for the locals, over two seasons of play. (7—0)

COACH O. E. JOHNSON

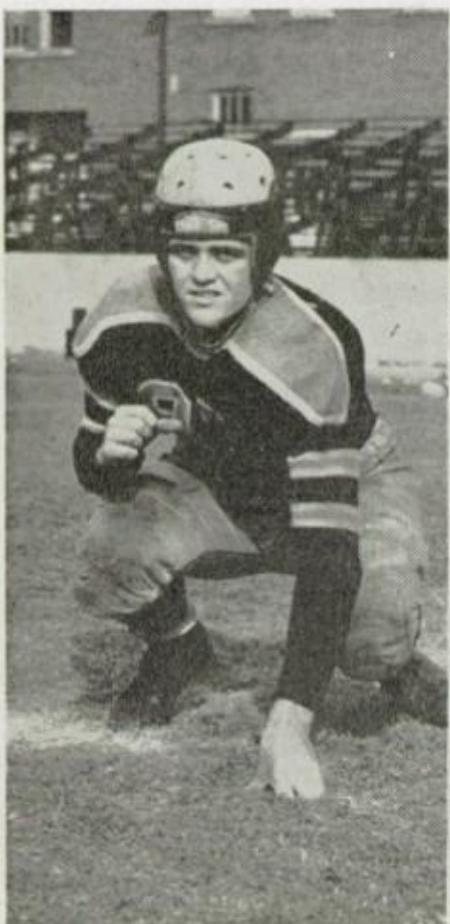

The passing of another successful football season, 1946, resulted in the winning of a second straight Conference and State championship, under the direction of Coach Oscar E. Johnson. This adds to his excellent record and classes him as one of the outstanding coaches in the state of Michigan.

MEN BEHIND THE SCENES

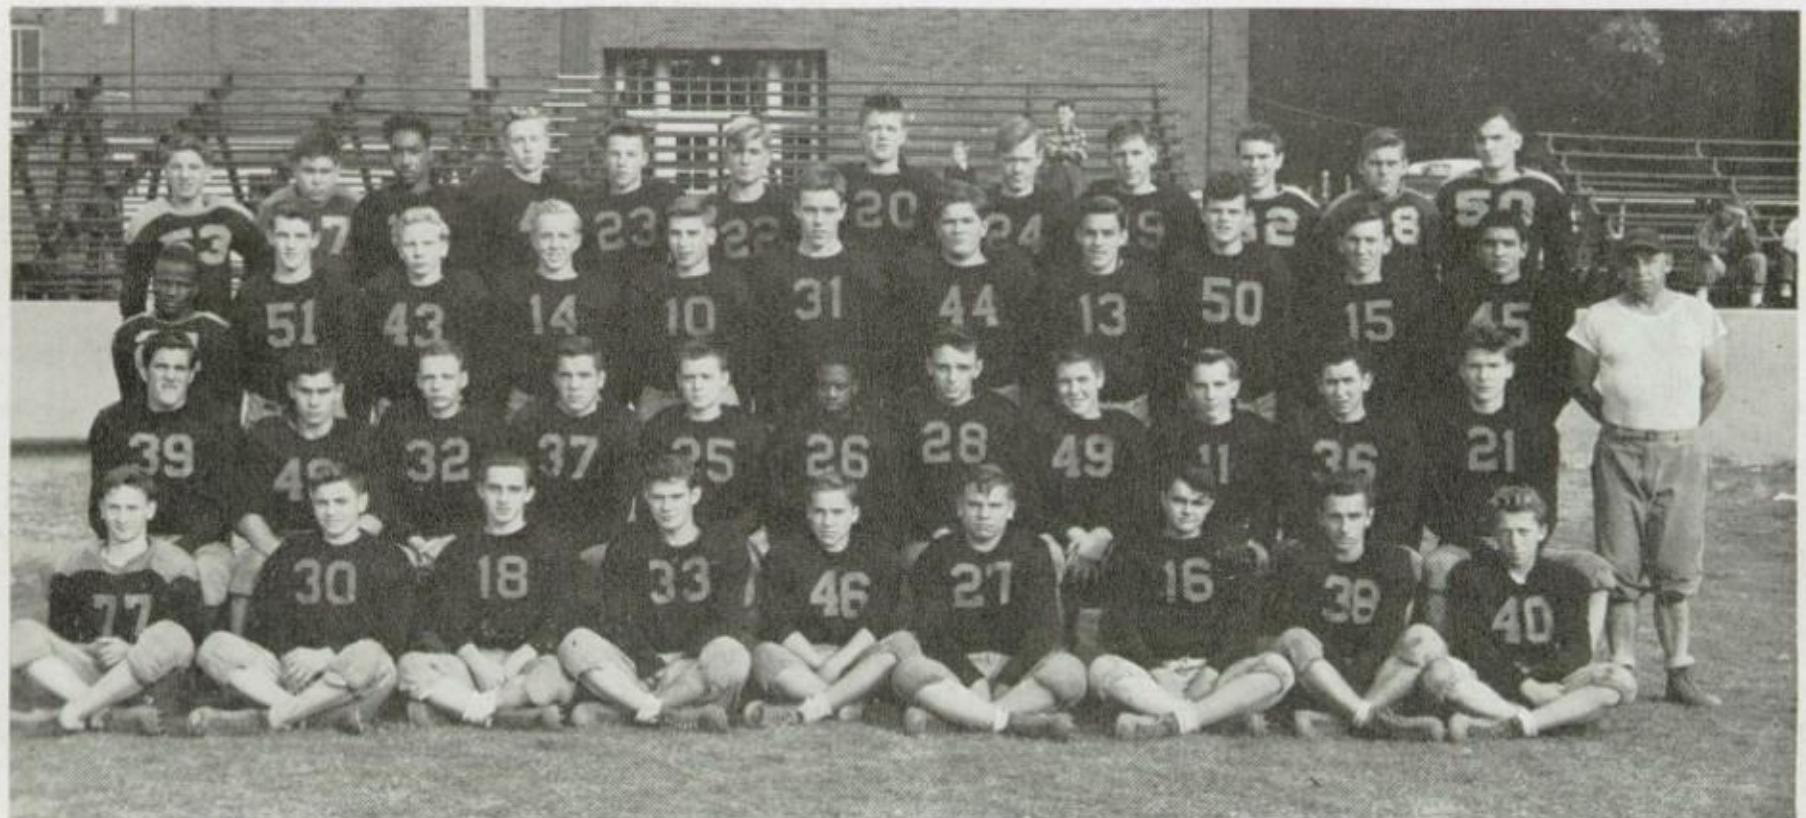

Mr. Kruizinga and Mr. Gillaspy, our faculty athletic association managers, handled the tickets (a whale of a job) and all affairs on the field. In addition, Mr. Gillaspy, assisted by Mr. J. V. Cobb, "gave out" with the public address information.

"Behind the scenes" these three men did much to bring about a successful 1946 season.

"Doc" August cared for our injured players, kept the rest in good shape, was a loyal fan, and contributed his medical fees to a scholarship fund.

In this picture, Captain Everett Grandelius (96), Tiger fullback, is shown cavorting through the swamp of Hackley field for a sizeable gain in the second quarter of the historic game with the Big Reds. DePoy (93), halfback, is leading interference. Muskegon players are unidentified.

This year our Tiger Seconds completed one of their most successful seasons in recent years, winning the Southwestern Conference crown.

Under the watchful eye of Coach David R. McKenzie and Assistant Coach Larry Schauder, the Little Tigers were able to win seven games and tie one. Of course, with such material as Frank Howell and Captain George Jurkas in the backfield, and outstanding linemen like John Nedeau, Jack Venne, and Bob Johnson, the coaching staff did not have to look far for boys around which to build their team.

The Tigers were held to a tie in their first game, but held the upper hand for the remainder of the season. The only major injury that occurred was a broken wrist received by Gerald Jacobson in practice session one afternoon.

Congratulations, fellows, on such a fine season.

The photograph here shown depicts an exciting moment in the Muskegon-Muskegon Heights Reserve game played at Phillips field. Jack Venne, guard, and Vic Lane, tackle, are shown hauling down a Muskie runner. Mike Strach (21) and Chet Tchozewski (10) are apparently "up in the air about the whole thing." Frank Howell, star halfback, is reclining HOLLAND—The Tiger Reserves were held to a 6-all tie. Holland passed the Tigers dizzy, but Howell's 70-yard run deadlocked the Woodenshoes.

HOLLAND—In a return game, the improved Bengal Seconds shut out the Holland Reserves 12 to 0. A fine running and passing attack was displayed.

UNION—Coach D. R. McKenzie's Little Tigers romped to a 24 to 7 victory over a big, rugged Union team. Capt. Jurkas scored all four tallies, and Frank Howell aided with an aerial attack that amazed, completing every one of his passes.

KALAMAZOO—The Orange and Black clad Little Tigers traveled to Kalamazoo to engage in their most thrilling game of the season, winning 20 to 19. Jack Venne, standout Tiger guard, blocked the conversion that would have tied the game.

GRAND HAVEN—The Bengal steam roller ran wild on Phillips Field flattening a rugged Buc eleven 33 to 0.

The Tiger offense clicked with perfect precision, the defense showing much improvement.

BENTON HARBOR—Coach D. R. McKenzie's vicious Tiger Cubs tore the Benton Harbor reserves to shreds, defeating them 26 to 6. Three tallies were registered in the first eight minutes, after which Reserve Cubs played much of the game.

GRAND HAVEN—The inspired Tigers trimmed the Havenites 26 to 6 in a return engagement played on Green Hill field. The only Buc score came late in the fourth period against second and third string players.

MUSKEGON—Bringing down the curtain on one of its most successful seasons in recent years, the Tiger Seconds walloped the Muskies 20-6. The Bengals were led by Frank Howell, speedy colored halfback who scored all the tallies on long runs. The vicious charges of the Tiger line and brilliant play of the backfield was too much for the Muskies to withstand.

VARSITY BASKETBALL 1946-47

CAPTAIN HOWELL

Gradelius

The usual high stepping, aggressive Tiger cagers suffered a rather mediocre season this year, accumulating five victories while absorbing 10 defeats.

Due to lack of height, loss of Paul Anderegg, star guard injured in football, and the loss of Everett Gradelius, a mid-year graduate, the Orange and Black were unable to hit their stride. Each game was fought hard and clean, and the Tigers won the respect of every opponent they met, including Grand Rapids South, City Champions, who edged the Tigers by only two points, 26 to 24, in the Regionals.

RESERVE BASKETBALL

The Little Tigers, under the capable leadership and direction of Coach Larry Schaudé, came forth this past season with a highly successful record of eight wins to four defeats in Southwestern Conference competition and Grand Rapids Central opposition.

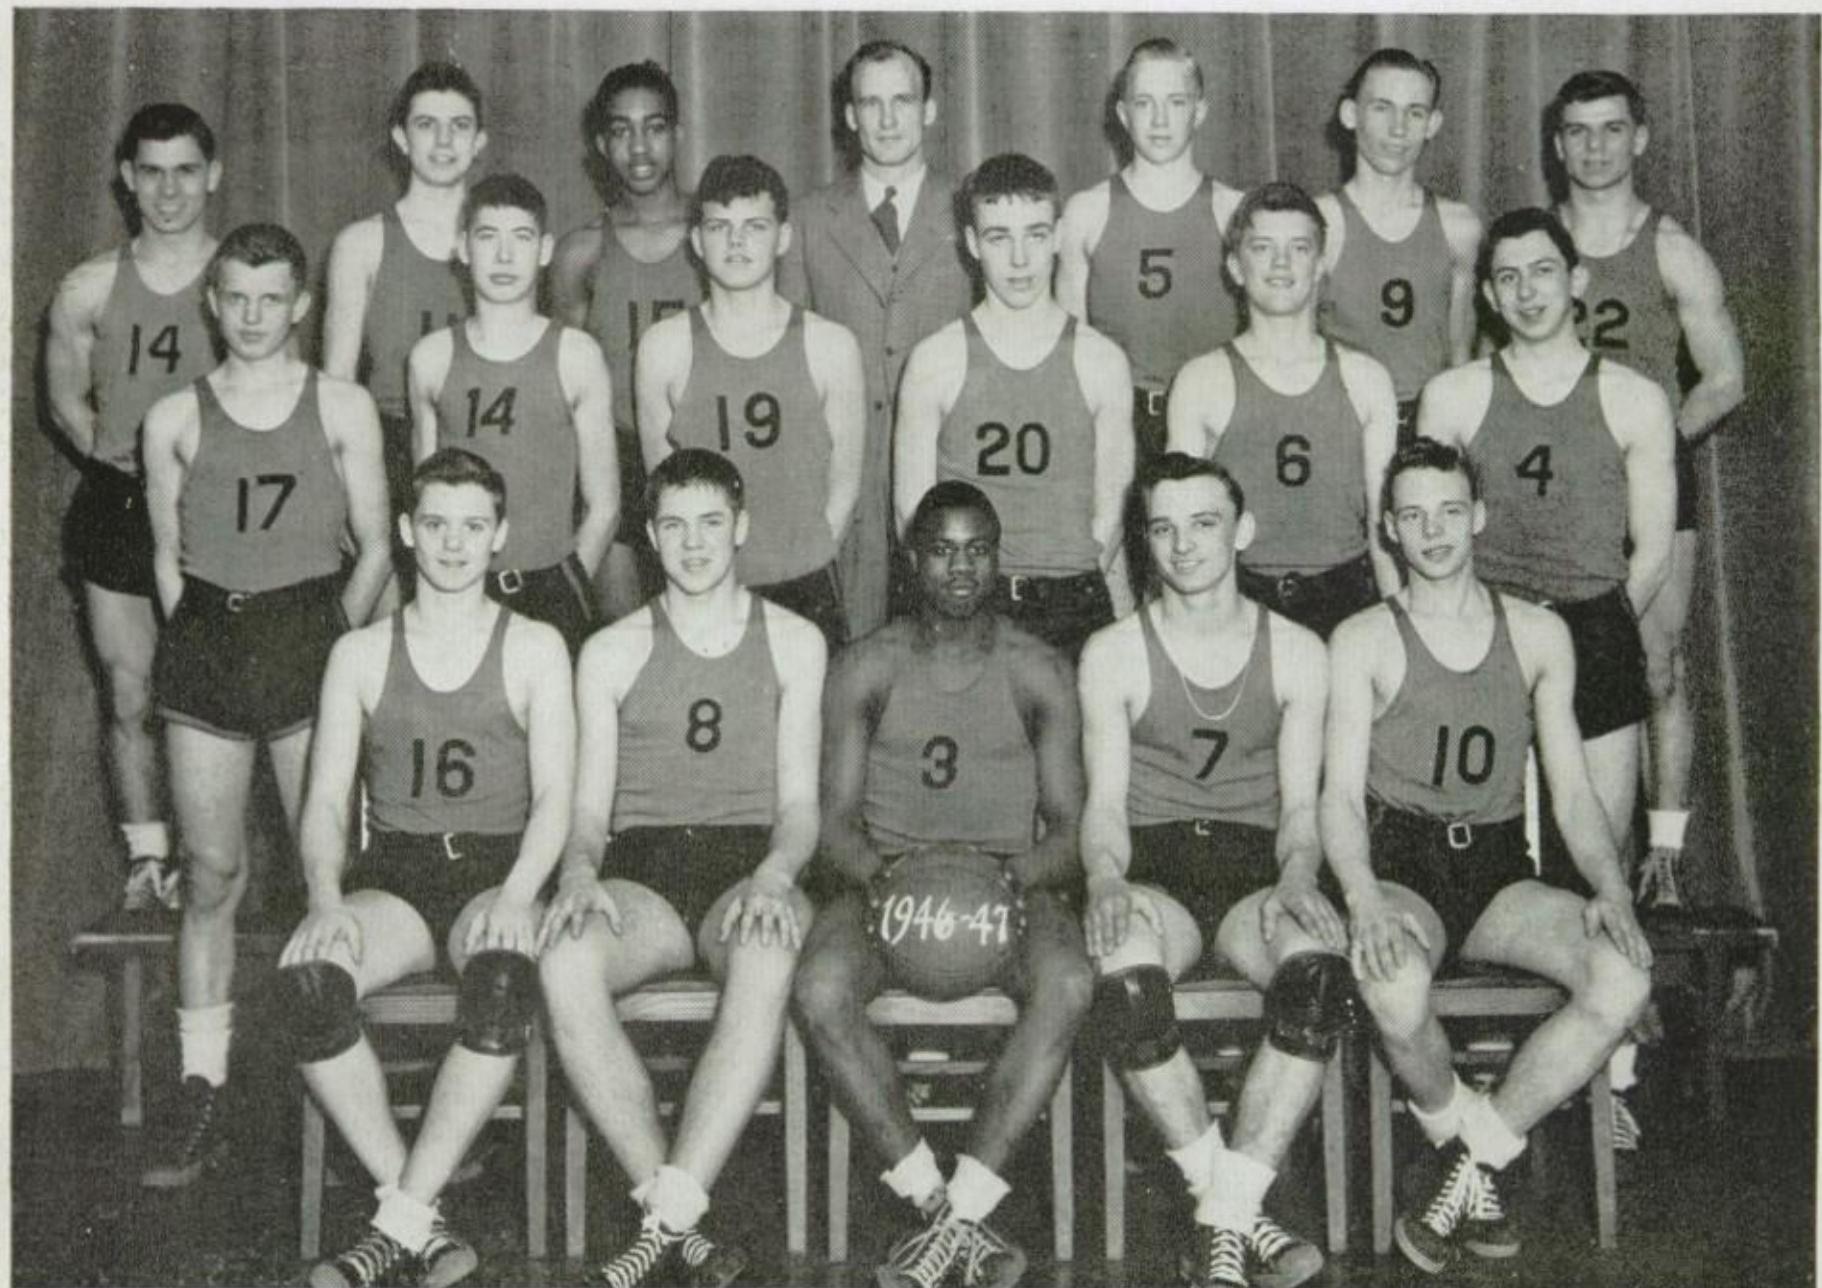

Paced by Captain Frank Howell, the Reserves, though reputedly the "underdog" on many occasions, gave out with the "do or die" spirit. Because of this fine showing of determination and fight, the Tigers gained much in experience and reputation which may benefit them greatly in the years to come.

Besides Howell, Jurkas, Nedeaü, Bob Johnson, Zorn, G. and D. Jacobsons, Sietsema, Bramble, and Hunter formed the backbone of the team. They all showed definite improvement as the season went along.

The return of five lettermen from the aggregation should do much to strengthen the hopes of a successful baseball season under the leadership of Coach Oscar E. Johnson.

The pitching staff is headed by veterans Fred Moeller, Neil Frick, and Alan Kushner, all with much experience behind them. It was rumored there were other younger pitchers on the way up when this section of the annual was being printed. These three boys, all good ball players, were available for other positions on the field if needed. Alvia Cater and Ray McLean, both veterans, round out the returning five.

At the time this was printed, new prospects were working out. It was hard to judge abilities of players so early in the season but it appears as though 1947 would be successful.

A small but fast squad of Orange and Black trackmen turned in some excellent times and distances in 1946, but because of its size could not place enough members for each event. The result was that the team captured only one team victory, that being over a strong Fremont squad by a score of 59 to 45. After that the Tigers absorbed defeats from Allegan, Holland, Kalamazoo, and Muskegon. It was always the superior number who won, though the Tigers gave them all a tough battle.

Bob Werner, whose specialty was the 440, was an important cog; with Rogers, in the half-mile; DePoy and McGahee, in the dashes; and Goericke, in the mile, forming the nucleus of the team.

Owing to the fact that the publication of this year's annual necessitated an early deadline, we are unable to present the results of this season's meets.

However, as we write this, a squad of about 40 boys have turned out for practice, with four lettermen returning from last year's team. Bill McGahee, dash man who competed in the State meet; Goericke, miler; Stibitz, shot-putter; Ribesky, half-miler; Bob Martin, hurdler; and a newcomer, Tom Johnson, "utility" power, formed the squad.

Coach Dave McKenzie was expecting much from certain sophs, and here's hoping that a victorious season will have been experienced by the time the fighting Tiger thinclads, as well as we editors on The Oaks, lay down our work for the year.

TENNIS TEAM

The Tiger tennis team, though loaded with ability, lacked the necessary competitive experience and fared rather badly, with two wins and five defeats. Miles Runk was the coach.

At Grand Haven, the Tigers succumbed to a 4—3 defeat with Votaw, in singles, and Johnson and Hansen, doubles, capturing honors. The Tigers outplayed Holland to win 4—3; then came defeats by Kazoo, 7—0, and Benton Harbor, 5—2. The Tigers beat Grand Haven, 4—3, and lost to Holland 6—1.

In the Regionals the Tigers lost the first day. Leading players were: singles, (1) Votaw, (2) Beattie, (3) LeBoeuf, (4) Doll; doubles, (1) Johnson and Schmalzer, (2) Hansen and Graff, (3) Turrell and Caughey.

A powerful and fairly well balanced tennis squad will hit the courts this year in an attempt to regain some of their lost prestige after a disastrous 1946 season.

Under the tutelage of a new coach, Ernest Dahlberg, who also was assistant football coach in 1946, the squad was expected to go a long way as this volume of The Oaks went to press. Led by Charles Votaw, a consistent winner for two years, and aided by Bob Graff, Bob Sholtens, Bill Turrell, Harold Hansen, and others, the team entered the Conference race with serious intentions of giving the league leaders a lot of good competition.

The majority of games scheduled were to be played away from home, a factor in lessening local interest in the game. Home games in any sport do much to create local enthusiasm.

GIRLS' PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Girls enrolled in physical education classes under direction of Miss Maxine Cobb began the season with soccer, volleyball, and tumbling. Later, intramural basketball became the favorite.

A word of explanation here will help to describe the plan used this year, which was a little different from that used previously. Instead of having mixed teams, each team was composed solely of students of one classification—Seniors, Juniors, or Sophomores. About 60 or 65 girls came out for the teams, making it one of the largest intramural basketball classes Miss Cobb has ever directed. The Seniors won the championship with a brilliant record, capturing every game they played.

Members of the Senior Team were: Pat Gardner, Neoma Schultz, Pat Miles, Joyce Colburn, Pat Bilka, and Mary Ellen Dobb.

During the spring months (so-called because usually at this time of year the weather becomes warm and balmy!) ping-pong, bowling, baseball, tennis, and track became the daily routine for their proficiency. Letters are awarded only to those who accumulate sufficient honor points, a most difficult task.

ADVISER

Mr. Murray

Those working on The Acorn, our school newspaper, prepare themselves for the greater task of editing and publishing the senior class yearbook, The Oaks, as well as learning a little about publishing from the practical angle, as well as out of a text-book. Stories must first be gathered, a process which develops tact, accuracy, poise, and alertness. Then they must be written in newspaper style, typewritten, set up in type, proof-read, and made up ready for printing in our own school print shop. Drawings and photographs must be sent to the engravers with instructions for reducing or enlarging. The last step, the actual printing, is done under the direction of Mr. C. F. Koehn and the boys in the print shop. Mr. W. E. Murray is our Acorn editorial staff adviser. Mr. Cobb takes the pictures and Miss Keillor, art teacher, supervises drawings. Mr. Peterman and Mr. Bolt are business advisers.

It is work, but is so enjoyable and so satisfying to those who do the work, that it becomes a fascinating subject for study. Each year, we hope, the little Acorns will continue to grow into bigger and better Oaks.

SCHOOL PUBLICATIONS

The school newspaper, The Acorn; The Heights Record, The Muskegon Chronicle, and Radio WKBZ have provided an opportunity for interesting writing and acted as a stimulus to better work throughout the year. They have helped develop in the journalism students the qualities of co-operation, tact, accuracy, tolerance, responsibility, and initiative.

The students in the Journalism classes were assigned certain "beats" to cover. The finished stories were turned in to one of the editors, who edited them and had them typed. They were then published, or given to the girls to broadcast over WKBZ each Wednesday afternoon at 4:00. These girls were Joanne Kolbeck, Ruth Ann Strand, Jeanne Booker, and Joan McConnell.

We hope that these means of publishing the school news have helped promote co-operation between parents and the school, and increase school spirit.

For Your Girl Graduate

GIFT OF HER DREAMS

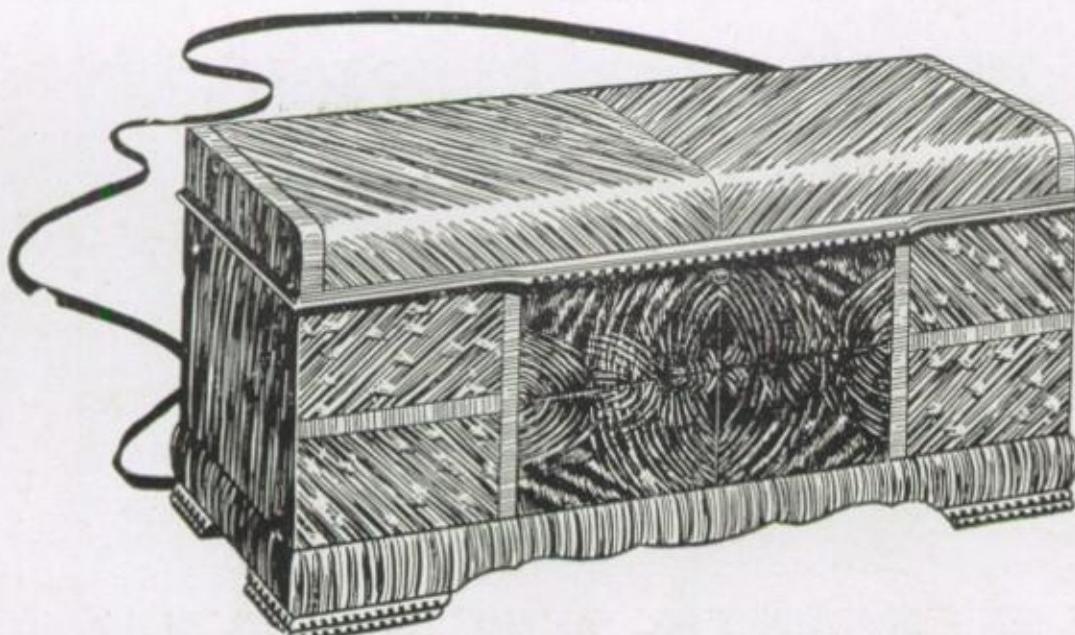

Lane Cedar Hope Chest

Since time out of mind, girlhood dreams have come true the hope chest way. Today, this romantic tradition is glorified by the most popular gift for girl graduates—Lane Red Cedar Hope Chest.

Distinguished workmanship—gorgeous veneers that can never peel or loosen—the only aroma-tight chest in the world—free moth insurance policy written by a world-leading insurance Company — plus many other Lane Cedar Hope Chest features!

Mothers, fathers, brothers, aunts, uncles, sweethearts—get her a genuine LANE!

THE LANE CO.

due to huge lists of post-war orders, are sorry that they cannot meet the demand for immediate deliveries. However, production is increasing speedily and if you will place your order NOW a beautiful Lane Cedar Chest will be YOURS or YOURS TO GIVE in the near future.

THE WELCOME MAT IS OUT

NOW THAT YOU HAVE A DIPLOMA

You will be looking for a chance to use training you received in school — typing, woodworking, drafting, shorthand, machine operation, and a lot of other subjects.

Brunswick can use that training while giving you an opportunity to gain experience — and at the same time pay you good wages. You'll find that Brunswick has a lot to offer above ordinary employment — extras such as a liberal vacation policy, a recreation program, insurance, a modern cafeteria — and the biggest extra of all --- a chance for advancement based on your own ability and application.

We are looking forward to discussing your future with you.

HIT IT, GANG !

It's Our . . .
HIGH SCHOOL SONG

Hushman

It's our Heights High School, It's our Heights High School,
The pride of every Heights High here. Come on, you old grads, join with us young lads, It's our Heights High School now we cheer! Rah!
Rah! Now is the time, boys, to make a big noise, No matter what the people say, For there is naught to fear, the gang's all here, So hail, Muskegon Heights High, hail!

SROINES (our mascot) SAYS, "SO LONG, GANG!"
